TOP TIPS

"Red lips have to be perfect and precise," says Wilson.

Try a flesh-tone liner to give shape to your lip.

I use this trick on Gwen Stefani. When the lipstick wears down, you still have a natural outline.

Trace the outside of the lips with concealer. It will make the liner look perfect and keep it from bleeding.

If you go with a gloss, apply it on the center of the lip.

Don't cover the entire lip area. Glōminerals is long-lasting, therefore your color will last longer.

Powerful Pout

Red lips have to be perfect and precise. Try a flesh-tone liner to give shape to your lip. When the lipstick wears down you still have a natural lip line. We suggest using glōminerals glōPrecision lip pencil in hazelnut.
